

Marty Wiese

- A friend to all, Marty was a muscular, broad-shouldered, hard-hitting, and fine fielding shortstop for many years. He was effective well into his 70's
- Marty was known for his "cannon" arm as well as the competitive glint in his eyes
- Marty's skill level put him in demand for travel teams
- Marty's passion for the game was evident in all that he did and he played with a competitive spirit that few could match
- Though a great player, Marty also made contributions in many other categories to the Senior League

Marty was one of two members responsible for the securing and installation of a large scoreboard for the League

He served as a manager

He served as a member of the League Steering Committee

He was the first Commissioner of the Senior Division of the League
